

Recorder Workshop with Kamala Bain

7-8 March 2026

Saturday 7 March: St Andrew's Anglican Church Hall
9am – 5pm 673 Lutwyche Road
Lutwyche

Sunday 8 March Sherwood Neighbourhood Centre
9am – 3pm 38 Thallon Street
Sherwood

Both venues have plenty of parking – in the church grounds on Saturday and in the surrounding streets on Sunday. They are both well served with public transport as well.

There are various ticket price options available during the booking process, including discounts for EMSQ members and concession prices for pensioners.

Ticket prices include morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea.

Full weekend EMSQ members	$100
Full weekend EMSQ concession members:	$75
Full weekend non-members:	$120
Saturday only EMSQ members:	$75
Saturday only EMSQ concession members:	$55
Saturday only non-members:	$90
Sunday only EMSQ members:	$50
Sunday only EMSQ concession members:	$30
Sunday only non-members:	$55

To book go to

<https://www.trybooking.com/DIYRL>

OR

Kamala Bain

Kamala is well known in Australia as a guest tutor at the Australasian Recorder Festival, and has a wealth of teaching and performing experience. She is a recorder performance graduate of the University of Auckland, where she studied with David Coomber, and the Conservatorium van Amsterdam, where she studied with Walter van Hauwe and Paul Leenhouts. Now based in Wellington, her work as a performer takes her back to Europe and Australia, with highlights including performances with Pinchgut Opera in Sydney, the Irish Chamber Orchestra, and the Akademie für Alte Musik Bruneck in Italy. Kamala teaches privately, makes regular appearances as a tutor at workshops in Australia and NZ, has taught in Ireland and Canada, and is an artist teacher at the NZ School of Music.